Smith Would Make Mayors Supervisors

At a "round table" meeting conducted by the board of supervisors Tuesday, some 150 civic, county, city, school and labor officials heard Chairman H. H. Smith propose that the mayor of each city become a member of the county's governing body.

"We need more contact from the people as a whole," he declared, after recounting the functions of the board of supervisors and explaining the widespread effect of its acts on both incorporated and unincorporated territory. "I hope there is some way that by change of the charter each mayor could become a member of the board of supervisors."

He asked the mayors present to act as a committee to study the proposal, and suggested that Mayor Harold F. Anderson of Redwood City act as chairman.

Smith also sounded a clarion call to patriotism by warning against the activities of "fifth columnists" in San Mateo County. Although he has announced his intention of retiring from office at the end of this year, he mad this statement:

"I am ready to make any sacrifice in the current emergency to do my part if the people require my services in any capacity in which my 22 years of experience in public office would be of value."

The annual per capita consumption of fishery products in the San Francisco Bay area amounts to 25 pounds.

Error in Bid On Sidewalks Saves Funds

Central Park district property owners who plan to install sidewalks under the city contract "got a break" Monday when bids were opened and the winning contractor declared he had made an error in his bid of 2 cents a square foot.

The winner was Peter Sorensen, Redwood City contractor, who bid 17½ cents a square foot. Only other bidder was the firm of Ferioli & Bettini, who offered to do the work for 20¾ cents a square foot.

Sorensen's bid was opened and announced first. Immediately after the other firm's bid was opened, Sorensen declared that he had intended to bid 19½ cents, and produced a similar contract showing a 19½-cent figure. However, the council, after members had inspected Sorensen's offer and satisfied themselves that he had written 17½ cents in ink, held him to his bid price, which he had guaranteed with a $3000 bond.

Effect of the error will be that Central Park residents will save about $2500 over what it would have cost them had a 19½-cent bid been secured. This will mean $5 on a 50-foot (5-foot wide) sidewalk.

Nephew of R. C. Man Killed in Accident

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCombs, 714 Whipple Ave., Redwood City, attended the funeral in Sausalito Monday of Mr. McCombs' nephew, Malcolm W. McCombs, 25, son of A. C. McCombs of Stockton. The young man met death last Thursday in an automobile crash near Petaluma.

'Dress-Up Days' Start In Redwood City Saturday

Get your last year's Western Outfit out of its mothballs—

Or, hie yourself to a Redwood City clothing store and buy yourself a new one.

That was the "free advice" offered today by Ole S. Oleson, chairman of Redwood City's Fourth of July Celebration committee, as he reminded local citizens that "dress-up days" begin here next Saturday, June 22.

Although the whiskerino was called off by the committee last Thursday night when it was reported so few men had registered for the contest it was not worth holding, there was no lack of enthusiasm when the question of costumes came up.

As a result, it was voted to stick by the original plan: "Dress-up days" from June 22 till July 4.

The official costume again will be Western: Jeans, bright shirt, neckerchief, "10-gallon" hat for men; cowgirl skirts or jeans, colored blouse, neckerchief, hat, etc. for women.

Merchants are urged to encourage their employes to dress up for the two-week period. The costumes will become "formal" dress at such functions as the coming joint service club meeting set for Wednesday, June 26, and for the Queen's Ball, in Forester's Hall, the night of July 3 when a girl is selected as Redwood City's Queen for the coming year.

WALTER MAILS SECURED FOR JOINT CLUB MEET

Walter (The Great) Mails, one of big-league baseball's most famous personages, who now lives in Marin County, has been secured as speaker for the joint service club meeting to be held June 26 as a prelude to the Fourth of July Celebration, Ferris W. Miles, committeeman in charge, announced today. The session, with Kiwanis, Lions and Exchange Clubs and their guests co-operating, will be held in Cafe de Paris at 6:30 p. m. Western costumes will be in order.

Mrs. Maude Hamilton Dies After Stroke

Mrs. Maude Hamilton of 717 Adams St., Redwood City, died on Monday shortly after entering a San Mateo hospital after suffering a stroke. She was 50.

Her family had lived in San Mateo County 25 years and formerly she lived in Burlingame and South San Francisco. She had lived in Redwood City five years. Mrs. Hamilton was a Past Matron of Ruth Chapter, OES. of South San Francisco and a past guardian of Bethel 68, Jobs Daughters, of San Bruno.

Probation Given On Driving Charges

Louis F. Books, 36, San Francisco WPA worker who pleaded guilty to charges of felony hit-run driving, was admitted to probation for two years Monday by Judge Maxwell McNutt. Books will be released tomorrow. As a condition of probation he was required to serve 60 days in jail. He has already served 59. Books' wife attempted to commit suicide by cramming her body in a trunk at her San Francisco rooming house and inhaling ether.

Citation Is Awarded

The only city in San Mateo County to be so honored, Redwood City on Monday was presented with a citation by the California Safety Council for "a record that really stands out" in reduction of traffic accidents during 1939.

The presentation was made at the city council meeting by T. Louis Chess of San Mateo, vice chairman of the advisory board of the CSC. He said that only Redwood City, Palo Alto, Hayward, Richmond, Oakland, Emeryville, Martinez, Pittsburg, Ross and Livermore in the Bay Region received such citations, and commended the local council, city departments, particularly police, and the citizens of the community for making such a record.

Brief speeches by several people followed. L. E. Wolbert, a member of the county traffic commission, added his congratulations to the city and particularly commended Sequoia High School for its education of students in traffic safety. Maj. H. W. Edmonds, city councilman and former traffic commissioner, also complimented the county commission and the Tribune for its co-operation. William M. Werder, councilman and Lions Club president, declared he was "proud of the whole thing." Mayor Harold F. Anderson remarked that receiving the citation was "one of the pleasant duties we have to perform."

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

MENLO PARK — Miss Ruth Wilkinson, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilkinson of Menlo Park, was married to Irby Lowe, Redwood City, in the Church of the Nativity last Monday. Father Thomas McKeon officiated. The young couple will live in Redwood City.

The Republicans of Menlo Park are securing signatures for the organization of a club. Over 200 have already signed the roll. The club will support the candidacy of Hiram W. Johnson for the U. S. Senate and John Z Anderson for Congress.

The annual retreat of pastors for this Catholic diocese began in St. Patrick's Seminary Monday and will continue until tomorrow. The priest in charge is Rev. Futon Sheen, president of the Catholic University at Washington, D. C. Father Sheen is accounted one of the ablest pulpit orators in the country. The retreat for the assistant clergy is to follow next week.

Another service station is to be started soon by the Standard Oil Co., which has secured one of the best business corners in town. Menlo Park can no longer be called the village of beautiful oaks but rather the town of hideous oil stations.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper have returned from their honeymoon and have settled down to housekeeping at San Mateo. Mrs. Cooper is the former Dorothy Shepard. Mr. Cooper is the son of ex-Mayor Cooper and is connected with the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. at San Mateo.

Numerous vacationists here who had contemplated spending the Summer in Europe have decided to go to Honolulu instead. This is due, of course, to the war on the continent.

Congressman John Anderson has wired D. E. O'Keefe that he will be a candidate for re-election and urged his friends to support his candidacy. Mr. O'Keefe managed his campaign in the locality two years ago. Anderson is to be opposed by John McGrath, former congressman. Anderson has made a splendid representative and ought to be returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McShane, San Francisco, are occupying their residence at Atherton. Mr. McShane is a well known attorney and is prominently mentioned in connection with the mayoralty of his native city. He probably will oppose Mayor Rossi.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ryan have arived home from a month's trip to Alaska. They had a delightful time and reported a large travel this season to the land of midnight sun.

Mrs. Frank Derry and Mrs. Catherine Maloney attended the Grand Parlor of Native Daughters this week. They represented Menlo Park. The ladies reported that over 500 attended and that it was the most important session ever held by the Grand Parlor.

Jack Anderson Files On Both Tickets

Nomination papers for the August primary election have been filed in Sacramento for John Z. (Jack) Anderson, Republican incumbent seeking re-election to Congress from the eighth district on both the Republican and Democratic tickets. Anderson, elected to represent this district two years ago, will again be opposed by the man he originally defeated, John J. McGrath of San Mateo.

Work To Start Soon On New Service Station

Work will start at once on the Standard Oil Co.'s new service station on El Camino Real at James Ave., Redwood City, according to Bryce Muir, realty dealer who handled the transaction by which the oil firm leased the property from Mrs. Rose Solari, who just purchased it from Union Oil Co. for approximately $20,000.

Investment by Standard is expected to approximate $15,000, as the firm plans not only to erect one of its finest type of stations, but also to fill in Redwood Creek on the property between El Camino Real and California St., installing a 3x5-foot culvert to carry the drain water, and to level the entire property, Muir said.

Labor Group Urged To Aid Civic Project

Action of Musicians Union 6, San Francisco, in denying "permission" to Redwood City's Municipal Band to play in the coming Fourth of July Celebration brought action from the Redwood City City Council Monday night.

Near the end of a four-hour session which broke up a few minutes before midnight after a large quantity of business had been considered, and after the council had gone on record urging citizens to participate in "Dress-Up Days" June 22 to July 4, it was voted unanimously by the official body to communicate with the Central Labor Council of San Mateo County informing it:

1. That the council itself was disappointed in action of the musicians union in not granting clearance to a city-supported band to participate in a civic function such as the Fourth of July celebration.

2. That it appeared to be the consensus of many labor union members themselves that the action of the musicians union was unjustified.

3. That the action is obviously detrimental to the general cause of unionism.

4. That it would be appreciated by the entire city if the Central Labor Council either could persuade the musicians to reconsider or would itself guarantee that any band member who played in defiance of the musicians' edict would not be fined or otherwise punished by his own union.

PROTESTS CITED

The subject was broached by Councilman William M. Werder. He said that many taxpayers had telephoned or approached him on the matter and that all were of the opinion the musicians union had taken an unjustifiable stand when it refused permission to the municipal band to play unless a 16-piece union band were employed by the Fourth of July Celebration Committee, which is staging the free celebration as an advertising feature and to make money from concessions for the Recreation Center.

Brassy Death Laid By Jury to Drowning

Drowning after he slipped and fell at Pebble Beach near Pescadero was the cause of the death of Rene A. Brassy, 63, Redwood City real estate broker, a coroner's jury decided Thursday.

He had gone to the beach June 11 to gather some of the famous colored pebbles for the aviary at his San Carlos home, his wife, Mrs. Ernestine A. Brassy, said after Mr. Brassy's body was found.

Strangulation caused the death of Mitsuru Ikari, 22, Japanese laborer, was the verdict of the jury. He was found June 11 hanging with telephone cable from a rafter in the boiler room at a nursery at which he worked.

An open verdict was given in the deaths of Dr. Wah Eng, 40, and Alvin Quong, 17, San Francisco Chinese, who were fatally injured June 10 when their automobile was struck by the Daylight Limited at Belmont.

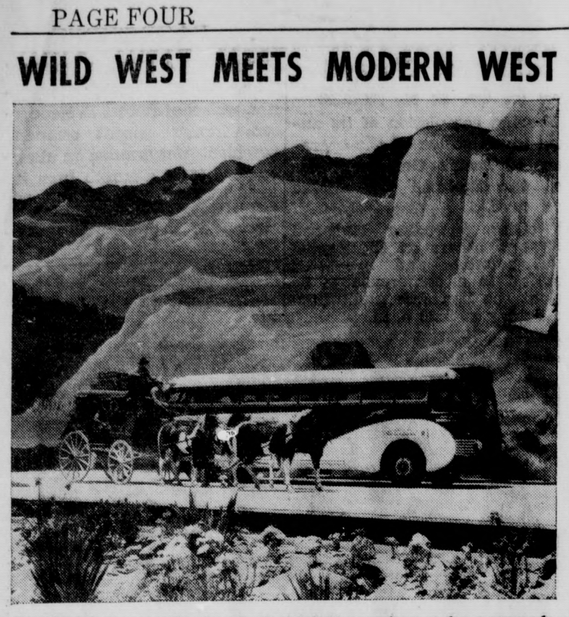
WILD WEST MEETS MODERN WEST



No, this picture wasn't taken in the high Sierras, but on the mammoth stage of "America! Cavalcade of a Nation," theme spectacle of the Golden Gate International Exposition. The horse-drawn stagecoach which operated over western highways many years ago is shown in striking contrast to the Streamlined, Air-Conditioned Greyhound Super-Coach serving the West over the same highways today.

Since 1291, every able bodied Swiss man has been liable for military service from voting age to death.

Outdoor Initiation Set By NSGW Grand Parlor

Native Sons of the Golden West grand officers, who include Wayne R. Millington of Redwood City, third vice president, will go to Hetch Hetchy, near Camp Mather, next Sunday to initiate a class of candidates in an outdoor ceremony. The event is being arranged through the City of San Francisco by L. F. Byington, San Francisco's public utility commission president and himself a past grand president of the NSGW.

Every year, about 5000 doctors are graduated from the 77 high-standard medical schools in the United States.

1915 Bond Act Employed for Financing

Supervisor John A. Lynch split sharply with three other members of the board of supervisors Tuesday afternoon over fiscal policies proposed for $38,000 in street improvements in the El Granada subdivision near Half Moon Bay.

The board overruled two written protests and Lynch's verbal protest and ordered the attorney for the district to prepare the resolution of intention to proceed with the work.

Lynch objected that the proceedings were being undertaken under the 1915 improvement act which in effect extends county credit to the subdivision and makes the county liable for any delinquencies.

"San Mateo County has made good on eight bond issues like this and has had to pay about $130,000 from general taxation to do it," Lynch declared. "This has been proved to be bad business practice, and there is no justification for continuing it in the future. There hasn't been a 1915 bond act job in the county since 1936."

'RELIABLE SUBDIVISION'

Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch defended the improvement on the grounds that the subdivision was well established, many of the lots having been sold 30 years ago.

"It's obvious that the county will be stuck," Lynch challenged.

Formal protest was made by C. C. Christensen, who opposed the assessment plan. He contended that the plan is to assess each lot a flat amount regardless of front footage improved or value. John Neumann, for G. W. Reid Co. of San Francisco, argued that the present economic conditions, lack of demand for El Granada property, and value of the lots do not merit the proposed expenditure.

On the vote to overrule protests, Supervisor Fred E. Beer and John W. Poole sided with Hatch. Supervisor H. H. Smith was absent.

Edward V. Chevalier Is Taken by Death

BURLINGAME — The Burlingame City Hall flag was at half mast here in honor of the memory of a former member of the city council, Edward V. Chevalier, who died Tuesday at a San Mateo hospital after an illness of a year.

Mr. Chevalier is survived by two sons, Frank G. Chevalier, of Burlingame, State Highway Patrol officer at Redwood City, and Edward V. Chevalier Jr. of Washington, and a daughter, Genevieve G. Chevalier, Burlingame.

South S. F. Company Among Five Indicted

The American Marble Co. of South San Francisco and four marble concerns with headquarters in San Francisco were among five marble companies, a trade association and nine individuals indicted by a special federal grand jury in San Francisco Monday on charges of violating the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

YMCA News

Fourteen members of the Redwood City YMCA Happy-Go-Lucky Club, together with Earl Whitaker and J. W. Dean, held an overnight outing in the hills above Woodside Friday night.

The group left in cars Friday at 2 p.m. and returned Saturday morning.

No new county has been created in New England since 1860.

WPA Serves Many Meals

A total of 107,257 meals were served to San Mateo County school children by WPA School Lunch Projects during the past semester, according to Hugh Shippey, who is in charge of WPA work in the county. A total of 44,338 lunches were served free to children who could not afford to pay, while 62,919 were served for 10 cents or less in seven schools in four towns. The income was used by the schools to purchase certain food supplies.

Directed toward the proper feeding of the undernourished child, according to Shippey this program resulted in better health, gain in weight, fewer absentees and more alert students.

At Jefferson High School, Daly City, for instance, children were weighed at the start of the program and the first month's progress of 113 boys showed that all but 8 had gained an average of 2 lbs. 6 ozs. while of 87 girls all but two gained 2 lbs. in weight.

This program has been sponsored by WPA, SRA, the schools and the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation.

Commuter Questions Planned in Burlingame

BURLINGAME — Proceeding carefully in the formation of a Burlingame Commuters Club, leaders of the new organization Tuesday decided to issue a questionnaire in an effort to determine whether the majority of local commuters are interested in formation of a permanent organization.

Offered the sponsorship and support of the Burlingame Chamber of Commerce, the leaders of the group met at the chamber office and laid plans for the questionnaire and for calling a mass meeting within the next two weeks.

Plans for the questionnaire, which will be distributed some time next week to commuters as they board and leave the trains at the Burlingame Ave. and Broadway depots, call for putting the organization problems directly up to the commuters.

'Sonny' Havey, Cafe Operator, Dies

A sister, Mrs. Gertrude Heaney of San Jose, and a brother, Harold Havey of Oakland, survive. Mr. Havey was the nephew of Mrs. Annie Bullivant of Redwood City. A number of other relatives also live here.

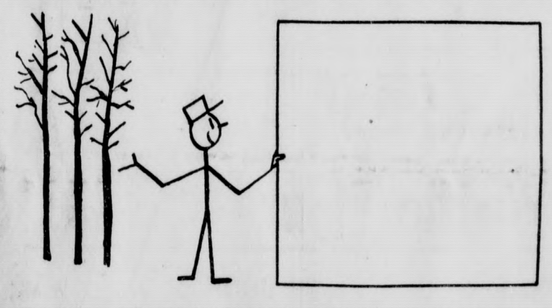
Dear Johns-Manville Redwood City Plant

What about machines? Aren't improvements in machines gradually putting more and more men out of work?

GEORGE CITIZEN



JOBS GROW ON TREES FOR J-M

Dear George

Of course improvements in machines may put some men out of work, temporarily. But improved machinery creates new jobs and gives more employment in the end than ever existed in the past.

Let me give you a swell example of how a big corporation, with its resources and its research, can make new jobs grow where jobs didn't grow before.

Down in Virginia there was a little village of 200 persons called Jarratt. It was surrounded by woody pine forests which had always been considered fairly useless.

In my company's laboratories up north, men were working to develop a method to make new kinds of wall board out of Southern Pine. The method was perfected and my company fixed on Jarratt, Virginia, as a spot where wood would be plentiful.

Big machines were invented to chew trees into pulp, take the knot-holes out, and remold the pulp into beautiful, insulating wall boards. (And the tree crop will be repeated every 10 to 15 years because the latest forestry methods of cutting and seeding are followed to preserve the supply.)

My company spent hundreds of thousands of dollars on a plant at Jarratt and created jobs for almost 500 men—mostly natives of the surrounding country.

This had to be a big scale undertaking. Ten or even 50 men with a few dollars could not have swung it. Back of it were years of factory experience and laboratory research and testing.

In my company, more than half of the jobs of our some 11,000 employees are the result of my company's development, expansion and research plans. (We've some 170 men in our research department and many others working on factory development ideas.)

This shows you how big business can really make jobs. (Eighteen new industries born in the United States since 1880 account for one out of every four people now working in this country.)

The people of Jarratt, Virginia, have seen a big corporation create a factory and create new jobs in a community where farming had been about the only source of income. And it's all due to improved machinery which made this possible.

Lutje Given Extra Month

Ehe superior court Monday afternoon took cognizance of the fact that Clyde Lutje, 27, convicted Redwood City incendiary now serving six months in jail on a South San Francisco auto theft charge, has broken terms of his probation.

The case record discloses: (1) On July 10 Lutje was sentenced to serve 90 days in jail as a condition to two years on probation following his admission that he set fires in Redwood City; (2) on Aug. 17, 38 days after sentence, Lutje was released on order of the court; (3) in an order issued yesterday, the court ordered Lutje to serve six months instead of 90 days on the arson charge, the other conditions of probation remaining the same. However, the six-month term is to run concurrently with the six-month term Lutje is serving on the South San Francisco charge, the net result of the hearing being that Lutje will spend an additional month in jail.

Revocation of probation, according to Probation Officer Francis Robinson, would have made it mandatory upon Judge A. R. Cotton to send Lutje to San Quentin.

Pierre Pirialli, Hillsborough butler accused of felony hit-run driving, pleaded guilty and asked probation. Elmer Owens, Redwood City truck driver, pleaded guilty to a modified charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Both men asked probation.

Mr. George, who was employed in the city's street department, was the husband of Martha J. George; the father of Mrs. Pearl Morris, Redwood City, and Mrs. Ruby Stevens, San Francisco; grandfather of Donna Pauline Stevens and Victor, Leroy and Mona Morris, and brother of Mrs. Florence Utterback of Richmond; Mrs. Belle Kelley, San Jose; Mrs. Faye Bullus, Oakland, and Edwin George, Edmonton, Canada.

He belonged to Redwood City Aerie 418, Fraternal Order of Eagles, the Standard Life Association, and Volunteer Veteran Firemen.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at the Layng & Tinney Funeral Home, with the Rev. C. E. Ward of the First Congregational Church officiating.

Scholarships Offered For Good Driving

"The Ford Good Drivers' League is not only making an important contribution to highway safety but is offering the high school age boys of this country a golden opportunity," said K. B. Towne of Towne Motor Co. yesterday in commenting on the nation-wide Good Driving Contest which the league is conducting this summer.

"I think every boy in the state who is eligible should join the league and get into the contest," added Towne. "There are no fees or dues to pay and the only requirement for membership is that a boy be between the ages of 14 and 19 and legally authorized to drive a car in this state. Any Ford dealer will gladly give him a free enrollment blank.

"This Summer the league will conduct a contest among its members to determine the championship high school age drivers of each state and of the United States. A total of more than $30,000 in prizes, including 96 trips to the New York World's Fair and 48 university scholarships ranging in value up to $5,000 will be awarded the winners.

"These are really worthwhile awards and I feel that our own state should make every effort to produce the national champion. Our boys are already among the best drivers in the country and if they will enter the league and devote themselves to improving their driving skill, one of them should be able to carry out state colors to national victory and the $5,000 scholarship award."

DR. CAMPBELL, Dentist
SAYS: "So intimate to one's everyday life and so important to one's appearance are

that everywhere dentists are using and recommending the new TRANSPARENT DENTAL PLATE MATERIALS.

For sheer beauty, naturalness and daintiness they are unique. Mere words do not suffice to describe the artistry shown in the clever blending of color tones that make them so lifelike, so gratifying to the eye and so well adapted to their purpose that one can well understand why they are being so enthusiastically endorsed by many members of our dental profession, and why we are proud of such a great factor that does so much to enable us to make dental plates that are nearer in appearance to nature's own tissues than many materials formerly used.

2. SIMILARITY in color to nature's own gums being so great, results can be obtained that defy detection.
3. SNUG FIT possible, due to adaptability of transparent material to each individual mouth.
4. SMOOTH glossy finish made possible so that plates can easily be kept clean.
